

Good morning Doris

God bless you dear Sister.

Look Doris, I want you to please, whenever possible, send this audio to Dr. Julian Del Rosario, it is an audio of gratitude that God has put in my mind, in my heart to send him.

First of all thank Dr. Julian Del Rosario for having been faithful to the call and mission that the God of heaven, that our beloved God has given him and this gratitude goes on behalf of my classmates, the Graduates in Theology and on my own.

Secondly, thank you for believing in my country, in our country Venezuela, thank you for believing in Us Dr. Julian, for believing in what God is truly doing, will continue to do and will do with our country Venezuela.

Thank you for believing in us, thank you for your self-denial Dr. Julian, for your kindness, for your dedication, dedication in your work, for your sacrifices, for your courage, because thanks to all these aspects, all these things, it is that today we are Bachelor of Theology.

May the God of heaven and earth, Dr. Julian continue to bless you, without limits in all things, both you and your family and your entire team.

Here in Venezuela, we continue working, always having our God, Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel's Squads ahead of us at all times, paving the way for this prestigious educational institution such as the International Theological University to continue advancing in our country reaching every day more and more students in the church of Jesus.

Very grateful here in Venezuela Dr. Julian, from Guarena, Miranda State, the Guarena Coordination.

God bless you and God keep you.
